Thoughtful Services, Personalized Pricing

At Root & Sky, I believe every life, every story, and every ceremony is unique. Whether celebrating a joyful beginning, honoring a meaningful transition, remembering someone dearly loved, or providing support for the end of life - your experience should reflect the values, traditions, and relationships that make the moment yours.

Because each service often involves different levels of preparation, personalization, time, travel, and coordination, the prices listed in this guide are starting points unless otherwise noted.

I offer a complimentary 30-minute consultation for ceremony and end-of-life services to better understand your needs. Following our conversation, I will provide a personalized quote outlining the service plan and associated fees.

I recognize that budgets vary. Whenever possible, I will work with you to explore options that honor both your vision and your finances.

Please note that Spiritual Services have a separate consultation and pricing structure.
